ERNESS . . . .

MEAN . . .

working together as a group in everything that pertains to the newly-formed jointure. Being in two different high schools sometimes presents problems that were never encountered. However, one must remember that the only way to have a successful organization is by cooperation on the part of every individual involved. This might mean a little sacrifice on the part of the students, but they should try to remember that this is only the beginning of something that is to grow and blossom into a jointure that they can be proud of in the future. It cannot be done overnight, but takes time for us to familiarize and acquaint ourselves with the new ideas and problems that might arise. If everyone does his part, the progress of the jointure should be both phenomenal and at the same time rewarding.

Foreword

This is the first attempt at having a joint yearbook for two separate high schools in the Mount Pleasant Joint School System. The new name "The Log", means simply a record of events and incidents that took place during the 1962-63 school year at both Hurst and Ramsay High Schools.

Since the book is devoted primarily to the senior class, we hope it will recall the many activities that highlighted their last year of high school. Some of these events will recall happy moments while others will bring back sad but cherished thoughts. It shows the culmination of their high school career along with its learning, hard work, extra-curricular activities, and sentimental moments.

We, the staff, hope that the 1963 "Log", presents the many highlights of your high school career that will be long remembered by each and every member of the class of '63.

We, the seniors of 1963, looking back on our high school days, see that we have progressed considerably in the slow process of becoming mature individuals. From that first day we entered high school, the emphasis has been on quality. As anxious freshmen we accomplished our tasks with eagerness and anticipation. We progressed through our sophomore year with the same spirit of accomplishment, even though we carried a heavier burden. In what seemed no time at all, our junior year was upon us and with it came new academic subjects along with its broad array of extracurricular activities. We entered our senior year with a schedule full of fun and work that passed all too quickly. The year ended for us, with a rustle of gowns and the crisp feel of diplomas and perhaps a few nostalgic memories.

Our faculty and administration have had a very important influence on the many phases of our lives. They helped us in the most difficult task we have encountered—that of growing up. This was done effectively by opening doors for us in many areas of knowledge. The thoughts of men in literature, the wonders of science, the need for logic in mathematics, the history of our world and civilization, and the ability to communicate in other languages are just a few of the subjects that we studied. Insight into vocational courses such as home economics, industrial arts, music, and art were equally presented in hope of making us well-rounded individuals.

The Class of '63 will be ever indebted to the faculty and the administration of the Mount Pleasant Joint Schools for their unselfish efforts in helping us in this, our period of adjustment.

Togetherness in the Classroom

Nurses

Mrs. Jane Haberlen and Mrs. Marion Domenick take good care of the students in the different schools of the jointure. They see to it that everyone is in good health by giving them various examinations periodically throughout the school year. They know their particular job well and are a credit to the nursing profession.

Custodians

The cleanliness of Ramsay and Hurst High Schools is due to our capable janitors. They go about doing their own tasks, both large and small, without any complaints. When additional help is needed for a particular job, the janitors are always willing to give a helping hand. Their many efforts are greatly appreciated by teachers and students alike.

Underclassmen

The seniors of '63 suggest that the underclassmen recall the purpose for which they attend school—to prepare for the future. Among the words of wisdom that come from every graduating class to the underclassmen are, "You only receive from your education as much as you put into it." As the seniors of tomorrow, accept the responsibilities and duties that will prepare you for the future. There is time for work and time for play, and if you use your time wisely, you will find that the one compliments the other.

We the seniors of '63 wish to thank the underclassmen for their efforts and assistance without which the success of our activities would not have been possible.

Included in these pages are the activities and events which help our high school grow athletically, musically, and socially. The various sports of football, basketball, and baseball find their places in the life of the student along with class plays, clubs, and band.

Individually, each member of the class of '63 will recall special events which took place throughout the year that played an important part in his or her high school career.

As spring approached, we began to realize that the end had come too soon. It is only with retrospect that we remember the things we hold dear and the highlights of our student life at Mount Pleasant Joint.

Yearbook

Throughout the year the yearbook staff, under the supervision of Mr. Thomas Kelly of Hurst and Mr. Michael Comfort of Ramsay, undertook the job of collecting material and pictures which are used to recollect the scenes and the most treasured moments you have spent in the halls of your school. Although it would be impossible to publish a record of all the times now held dear to you, the staff members tried to produce a book that will recall the most important and significant years of your lives.

Staff

Furthermore, this annual is a mere stepping-stone in the effort to bring about a profound feeling of unity between the Mount Pleasant Joint High Schools. In like manner, the staff endeavors to bring honor and glory to our schools by creating an annual which mellows realities into permanent memories with a real meaning.

With this complete summary of the school year, the Log staff extends to each student the hope that each of you attains his ultimate goal. If this annual succeeds in being a partial reminder of your days of happiness and sincere devotion to your Alma Mater, then we accomplished our purpose of this year's work.

AIMS:

The purpose of the National Honor Societty is to give scholastic recognition to students for proficiency and academic achievement. It instills students with the incentive to do their best during their four years of high school, since this honor is bestowed on the qualified individuals during the senior year. It is a goal toward which a student should strive. The society aims not only to recognize leaders in the academic field, but more important, to promote a spirit of cooperation among the members in learning to work efficiently and effectively in a group. It is an organization that is respected by all.

National Honor Society

AIMS:

Service, Leadership, Character, and Scholarship — these are the qualities upon which the election of junior and senior students to the National Honor Society are based. Under the capable supervision of Miss Myers and Miss Fisher, this organization strives to inspire students toward higher scholastic and moral standards. Each year the new members are inducted during an impressive service before the entire student body. At this time, the new members recite the oath of allegiance to uphold the requirements of a model student. Also, each year, a scholarship is presented to a deserving student who intends to further his education.

Seniors: R. Shields, A. Klejka, R. Zeglin, J. Kopscak.

Officers: R. Lazor, W. Bair, R. Shields, R. Shirley.

Chemistry Club

AIMS:

Under the direction of Mr. Kromer, the future chemists learn and practice the basic fundamentals in the chemistry lab. Those boys who are interested in chemistry and the uses of the elements make up the membership of the club. In the club, the boys learn the chemicals, their formation, and composition. Each member receives unique experiences in all phases by working in the laboratory himself, while at the same time he learns to work with others. Then, too, these boys are obtaining actual experience which will undoubtedly be used in their college education.

HURST

Aim:
Each month the Hurstonian, the school newspaper, is published by the journalism class under the supervision of Miss Letitia Myers. The Hurstonian was established in 1936 by Miss Myers, making this the twenty-seventh sucessful year. Co-editors, Florence Mizenko and Phyllis Busko, with the assistance of the staff, spend many hours each month working on the paper to maintain the Hurstonian's reputation of being one of the best school papers in this area. The purpose of the school paper is to provide the current news around school. The Hurstonian is a means of expression for those who like to write, and working on the paper is also a way to gain valuable experience in the field of journalism.

Student

AIMS:

To consider matters pertaining to student welfare is the sole purpose of the Student Council. The organization of the council, simple, yet effective, is of and for the students. Being composed of the presidents of the four classes, presidents of different clubs and organizations, and elected homeroom representatives, the Student Council undertakes various money making projects during the year. Each year the Student Council grows with surprising vigor and greatly widens the scope of activities. Under the supervision of Mr. Simon, the Student Council has become a standing symbol of democracy in our high school.

Council

AIM:

Student Council is an organization in which the student body takes an active part in governing the school; and at the same time it encourages leadership, service, character, scholarship, and offers authority to unite the student body. Upon the recommendation of Dr. Mullin, principal, the Student Council again organized in 1961 with Mr. Stas and Mr. Cibulas as advisers. The purpose of the Council is to teach a democratic form of government, to encourage students to plan and to carry out projects, and to give the students a voice in the operation of the school with the veto power of the principal.

Sigma Rho

Aim:

Sigma Rho, under the capable supervision of Mrs. Vance, is not only a mathematics club, but also an honor society for students who have had the ability and perseverance to complete four years of mathematics successfully. These years included Algebra I, the freshman year; Plane Geometry, the sophomore year; Algebra II and Solid Geometry, the junior year; and Trigonometry and College Algebra, the senior year. Its function to promote the interest of the students in all uses of mathematics, especially the use of the slide rule, and to try to gain a clearer knowledge of the essentials in this field has certainly been attained.

Projection Club

AIMS:

Under the direction of Mr. Smith and Mr. Miele, the members of the projection club assist the teachers of our school by operating movie projectors and audio equipment at various school activities and functions. The members are trained in the handling and care of the many varied machines that the club has acquired with funds raised through an annual dance. Part of their duty is to show educational, as well as entertaining movies, when needed in lycium programs. The Projection Club has proved to be a helpful organization and plays a vital part in our school's education field.

HOMECOMING

Emotions of excitement and expectation filled the air on Friday, October 12, 1962, as the candidates for the annual Homecoming festival made their appearance on the football field at halftime. It was an awesome procession of thrills as the representatives of both schools marched onto the field, arrayed in a rainbow of beautiful colored gowns, to the melody of "Memories," played by the Red, White, and Blue Viking Band.

As the music stopped, a finger of silence enveloped the night. Then, came the moment all awaited! Joanne Muchoney and Jackie Macaluso, Hurst and Ramsay Homecoming Queens of 1961, crowned Miss Patricia Nunamaker and Miss Cheryl Testa as the 1962 Homecoming Queens of Mount Pleasant Joint High Schools. Happiness and joy were shown as, the queens were congratulated by the other attendants. A procession of cars filled with the twelve lovely girls encircled the football field so that the many spectators could view the court.

In addition to the coronation, the audience witnessed an exciting game between Kitanning and the powerful Vikings, with the home team topping the visitors 32-6. To celebrate the momentous evening, a dance was held in the Norvelt auditorium as a climax to this annual Homecoming event of treasured and ever remaining "Memories."

Art Club

AIMS:

To acquaint the members with the various techniques and methods that can be used to make a work of art is the objective of the Art Club. Different projects are planned that interest each individual, either on a personal or general basis. Upon completion of each particular project, each member has acquired a new knowledge which might prove helpful to him in the future. These projects, supervised by Mr. Comfort, are done at meetings which are held twice a month in the evenings. Field trips to art shows and museums are planned periodically throughout the year for the sole purpose of acquainting the members with art work that is typical of our day and age.

Spanish Club

Aim:

Under the capable leadership of Mr. Brody, faculty adviser, the Spanish Club undertakes several projects each year to acquaint the members with various aspects of Spanish culture and customs. Members of the club accept various responsibilities to portray Spanish life. This in turn develops interest and understanding of the Spanish people. Along with this the installation of the language lab created another purpose, to encourage students to learn, to speak, and to converse in their foreign language. At the same time each student can drill on his particular weakness and become aware of the nececssity of knowing a foreign language.

Future Teachers of America

AIMS:

To give each member the guidance in selecting the proper courses which would be necessary to provide a background for the teaching career is the goal of the Future Teachers of America. The importance of this organization cannot be over-emphasized for the teaching profession is vital in this day and age. This year the F.T.A. planned a schedule of meetings which was very helpful, as well as entertaining. Faculty members spoke to the club concerning the different aspects of teaching and film strips, which pertained to teaching as a career, were also shown. This club has proven to be a stepping stone to the many students entering the field of education. The advisers of this club are Miss Galley and Mrs. Byers.

Teenage Book Club

AIMS:

TAB had its beginning in the fall of '62 and has Miss Rudzinski as its director at Hurst. The Teenage Book Club is sponsored by Scholastic Book Services. By being a member one is exposed to a wide range of selections chosen to challenge and captivate readers of all levels of skills. At the same time economy is considered, for these books can be purchased at reasonable prices. Next, all the books have professionally selected titles screened by an Editorial Board of distinguished educators and librarians. Finally, TAB promotes incentive for more reading and more sustained interest in reading. Put TAB to work today, and watch the results!

Senior Chamber of Commerce

Aim:

Every club has a purpose and the Senior Chamber of Commerce acquaints the members with commercial work, so that they will have a better understanding of business situations and be able to obtain employment in a business office. In the past, under the direction of Mr. Freed, this club has raised money to pay for equipment for the commercial department. The S.C.C. is composed of junior and senior commercial students. To raise funds throughout the year, dances and bake sales are held by members of this club. In the spring, the S.C.C. extends a farewell to senior members by presenting them with an annual banquet.

MY SISTER EILEEN

"My Sister Eileen" hilariously reveals the trials and tribulations of the Sherwood girls — Ruth and Eileen. Having come to Greenwich Village in pursuit of their careers — Ruth, a writer and Eileen, an actress, find themselves surrounded by some unusual people.

The play has the girls humoring their penny-pinching landlord, Mr. Appopolous, outwitting the deceitful Chic Clark, coping with Frank Lippencott, who has a crush on Eileen, and sinking the Brazilian Navy.

After an evening of laughs, the audience is confident of an ordinary ending, but is quite surprised with the last unique arrangement of affairs, for the girls take out another three month lease on the apartment.

Miss Brooks has plenty of teacher trouble, and her "escape" is in dreaming about her vacation. She has travel folders on several Caribbean cruises, which she discusses with the athletic coach. Miss Brooks suddenly sees that perhaps he is "the man" for her. She is glad she isn't putting on the school play this year so she won't have to battle him for the use of the gym. Then the blow falls. The play is thrust on her.

Despite Miss Brooks' eagerness to avoid trouble with the coach, a battle royal develops. The coach's star athlete, Ted, gives up the team for a main part in the play. The daughter of the school board president is determined to play opposite him — which gets Miss Brooks into even more trouble, for she reads the lines so poorly and Miss Brooks gives the role to an attractive nobody who has real talent. The school principal is in a frenzy of worry over the possible repercussions for what Miss Brooks has done. He's right. There is an explosion, Miss Brooks' public and private problems become hopelessly entangled.

"Do I look like a servant girl from Tibet?"

"Do you really think I could learn to sail?"

"Oh! I forgot my lines!"

"So you think you have dandruff troubles."

Ushers Club

Aim

One of the most active clubs at Hurst is the Ushers Club, under the supervision of Mr. Thomas Kelly, the faculty sponsor. Members in the club consists of boys from the freshman through senior classes. The boys hold a dance during the year to raise funds. Then, at the end of the year each senior boy receives a tie clip and cuff links to commemorate their services to the club. Unsurpassed appreciation is due these ushers for the splendid jobs they do at class plays and various school activities.

Usherettes Club

AIMS:

Distributing programs to each person in attendance at the annual band and choral concerts, the class plays, and various other public activities and escorting the people to their respective seats in the auditorium is the responsibility of the Usherettes Club. Before performing their various duties the Usherettes are acquainted with the seating arrangement for reserved seats and are instructed by their sponsor, Mrs. Siska, as to the basic fundamentals of escorting and seating each individual to his proper place. The Usherettes perform this necessary task very well and are certainly appreciated by all who attend the various functions in the auditorium.

Library Club

AIMS:

The Library Club creates an interest in the library and develops a helpful social atmosphere. The members acquire a sense of responsibility by keeping their library and their books meticulous and attractive. Mrs. Nock, by providing social and ethical training, stimulates personal interest concerning the handling and use of books, pamphlets, magazines, and reference material, and the care of furniture. Club participants alleviate the mechanical and clerical work on the part of the librarian. Members become acquainted with the various authors and numerous library works. A secondary objective is the encouraging of librarianship as a vocation through prevocational training.

Library Club

Aim:

Since its existance, Miss Galone, Hurst Librarian, has been supervising the operation of the Library Club of Hurst High School. Included among the purposes of this small organization is student librarians providing extra help in maintaining the use of the library. Because these members come in close association with the student body, they are able to give instructions in the use of the library and to stir reading interests—thus furthering education through reading. Along with these, student librarians have an opportunity to study and to become more familiar with library science so that in future life they may follow this profession.

SNOW

We reign together. Michael Olenchock, Kathy Bulebosh.

Highlighting the Snow Ball Dance, sponsored by the Band is the coronation of the Snow Ball King and Queen. This year's queen was Kathy Bulebosh and the king was Mike Olenchock. The court was composed of five senior couples, three junior couples, two sophomore couples, and one freshman couple. This year was the first in a long time that the dance was held in our high school gymnasium. "The John Dragon's" orchestra provided the music for the evening. At 9:30 the coronation began. Attired in many beautiful colored gowns, the attendants and their escorts began the march which led to the stage. Then came the event all awaited and Hurst once again had a reigning King and Queen.

I'm really a good boy, Santa!

I could have danced all night!

French Club

R. Rhodes, E. Micholajek, J. Edris, S. Steshoski, J. Baldwin,

Officers: R. Shirley, A. Egleston, J. Kelley, P. Busko.

AIMS:

When the 1962-63 school term started, the 23 French students decided to undertake a gigantic task — to form the "Les Amis de France". Under the able guidance of Mrs. Rita Casteel, the French Club was formed. They adopted the motto, "Liberte, Amitee, Fraternite." To promote interest in French culture and language and to stimulate interest in the spoken language is the purpose of the "L. A. F." One unique factor is its two types of members — active members, those taking French, and those interested in French. This is the first club in the Mount Pleasant Joint school system to have social members.

Standing: M. A. Lessick, T. Barnett, B. Bitner, J. Kowalczyk, K. Kostley, A. Chalfant. Sitting: L. Myslewski, K. Miller, K. Angus, D. Kowatch, J. Terhorst.

Future Teachers of America

The William D. Mullin Chapter of the Future Teachers of America is composed of 27 members. The nucleus of the club is comprised solely of seniors, juniors, and sophomores. All members must meet the requirements issued by the national, state, and local associations. The main purpose of the club is to acquaint the members with the problems that will affront them as future teachers. A student teacher day is reserved as an annual event, by which members of the club undertake the challenge of teaching for one day. The club also conducts monthly meetings at which guest speakers are present and they in turn inform the club on the various facets affiliated with the teaching profession.

Officers: Barry Martz, Jim Kelly, Phyllis Busko, Dennis Faust, Orval Hitchcock, Larry Myslewski, Penny Porch, Allen Joyce Chalfant.

The crowning of Judy Rogacki and Tom Zaucha as queen and king of the Cinderella Ball

Cinderella Ball

The Cinderella Ball, sponsored annually by the Tri-Hi-Y was a gala event enjoyed by over forty couples this year. Numerous signs of autumn, such as parched corn stalks, golden pumpkins, and orange and black goblins, which comprised the decor, carried out the theme of this year's formal Harvest Ball. Dressed as scarecrows, the freshman girls who served refreshments added a decorative touch to the fall atmosphere. Highlighting the evening was the crowning of Judy Rogacki and her escort, Tom Zaucha, as queen and king of the Harvest Ball. The orchestra then played for the royal couple "An Affair to Remember", an affair not only to be remembered by them, but by all who attended.

Commercial Club

AIMS:

Under the capable direction of Miss Galley and Mrs. Lemmon the Commercial Club helps students, who pursue the commercial course, prepare for a future in the business world. The subjects that are offered in the commercial field are varied and provide the proper background. During the year, the Commercial Club scheduled a number of field trips to business establishments in our community and nearby communities. They planned trips to the Mount Pleasant State Bank, Permali, and other such business concerns, where they were able to observe first hand business in action. The girls who plan to do secretarial work were able to see the variety of secretarial employments which will be open to them in the future.

National

AIMS:

Over a quarter of a century ago, the Hurst National Forensic League was begun under the supervision of Mr. Joseph Silvis. Since then, it has been fulfilling its main purpose of building skill, poise, and confidence in public speaking. This is done by competition in a variety of categories in tournaments on Saturdays. Some of the categories in which the forensic students participate are: extemporaneous speaking; debating; student congress; humorous, dramatic and oratorical declamations; and original oration. This year marked the first time that Ramsay and Hurst have joined together as the Mount Pleasant Joint National Forensic League.

Forensic League

AIMS:

To help students improve in public speaking and to acknowledge those talented in speech are the chief objectives of the National Forensic League under the supervision of Mr. Silvis and Mr. Solo. This is done by competition in tournaments on Saturdays in categories comprised of extemporaneous speaking; debating; student council; humorous, dramatical, and oratorial declamations; and original oration. Since prepared talks frequently taken from literature are sometimes presented, forensic club members acquire an insight to literature and dramatics. Extemporaneous speaking about vital world problems at National Forensic League debates keep the students well-informed about current events. The Forensic League gives valuable instructions in public speaking, which will be an asset to its members in any future career. This year marked the first time that Ramsay and Hurst have joined together as the Mount Pleasant Joint National Forensic League.

Future Homemakers

AIMS:

To help individuals improve personal, family, and community living, now and in the future, is the aim of the F.H.A. Appreciation of the joys and satisfaction of homemaking and the importance of worthy home membership is emphasized through group cooperation. The development of creative leadership in home and community life and the means of achieving a good home and family life for all are stressed. An important goal of the members is to provide wholesome, individual and group recreation and to promote international good will through democracy. Participation in the club, under the sponsorship of Miss DiTullio, encourages further interest in home economics and its various other fields.

AIM:

Under the direction of Miss Hacker and Mrs. Freed the Home Economics Club strives to instill in the girls a feeling of learning to live better today in order that their lives and that of their families may be better tomorrow. To better insure a well-rounded education in economics, the girls are trained not only to be a connoisseur of food, but also a seamstress. Along with these, special emphasis is put on modern home making, wise buying, and good grooming, so that in the future these girls will become model home makers and ideal mothers.

Happy Birthday, Nohyra!

A scene of beautiful Columbia

I want to thank all of you for having given me the wonderful opportunity of living with you in this school and community. It has been an exciting, interesting, and enjoyable year, with many experiences that I will cherish forever. It was a great honor for me to come to stay in the United States for this year. I feel now that I really know the American way of living, and I will be sorry to leave your country and the many friends that I have made. Thank you!

The summer I spent in Belgium was one which has given me the greatest experience of my life. Besides giving me the chance to represent the United States, it has permitted me to represent my community and school—an opportunity which has aided a better understanding between all. The American Field Service is a program of major importance concerning better feeling between nations of the world, and I am grateful for having been given the chance to carry out the aims of the program and promoting good will.

Future Nurses of America

Aim:
To encourage those students whose goal is directed toward the nursing profession is the goal of the F.N.C. under the leadership of Mrs. Kromer. Then, too, at the annual banquet, a special presentation of a $100.00 scholarship is made to a deserving senior who has been accepted to a school of advanced training in the nursing profession. Along with this the girls are urged to perfect themselves in character, leadership, understanding, and trustworthiness so that they can be ideal "Ladies in White". Finally, as a special project, the Future Nurses supervise the operation of the medical room.

Tri-Hi-Y

AIMS:

To create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, the school, and the community, high standards of Christian character is the intention which constitutes the motto of the Tri-Hi-Y. Being composed of high school girls, the Tri-Hi-Y is an organization under the sponsorship of the Young Men's Christian Association and at Ramsay, it is guided by Mrs. Bergia and Miss Galley. The club's symbolic name is derived as follows: "Tri" stands for its threefold purpose; "Hi" signifies high school girls; and "Y" denotes its affiliation with the Y.M.C.A. The Tri-Hi-Y emblem is a triangle wth "Tri-Hi-Y" in its corners and a torch inscribed in a circle in the center of this triangle. The triangle represents the entire personality — spirit, mind, and body; the circle indicates completeness of Christian life; the torch represents the mission expressed in the club purpose.

"A Young Man's Fancy"

a three-act comedy presented by the junior class of Ramsay in '62

"And tell her to clean up those sneakers."

"A Young Man's Fancy" revealed how a shy, sensitive boy became accepted by all the boys of Camp Freedom. Richard Framingham Crandal was assigned to Harold Greenley's cabin. His bunk mates were Durie Davis, a very athletic boy, and Joky Stephen, a bespectacled, eccentric young man. There were also Grilly Cristiede, a handsome, cleancut fellow and Buddy MacDermit, the fat boy devoted to food. Since Richard's arrival, his non-acceptance led him to playing tricks on his bunk mates. Fixing the beds to collapse, wiring the benches in the washroom and planting frogs and snakes in their beds were some of the tricks he attempted. However, this only added to his problems and in turn caused more trouble to develop due to Richard's father threatening to close the camp if Harold didn't make a real boy of his son. As the summer ended the boys were involved in a very important baseball game. Camp Freedom had lost the game but then Richard remembered a rule in his baseball book that saved the game. This automatically gained for Richard the acceptance of the boys and ended the play happily. The play was under the capable direction of Robert W. Myers.

"Peeping? Who's Peeping?"

"When we come to the end of a perfect matinee."

"We are the boys of Freedom's Camp"

"I only have eyes for you."

"You'll love it here at our camp!"

"What does your rule book say about a fist in the mouth?"

"Our Hearts Were Young And Gay"

a three-act comedy presented by the Senior Class of Ramsay High School

"Then he crushed me in his arms and he kissed me!"

"But darling, you wear it under your dress!"

"Our Hearts Were Young And Gay" exposed the light and humorous adventures of two young girls traveling to Europe during their vacations. Cornelia, the serious and more colorful of the two, fell in love while on shipboard and was constantly making up a fantastic, make-believe life. Emily, the less flamboyant of the two, was always ready to help her friend even though she never quite understood why. On the voyage, Emily, thinking she killed a man, actually caught an elusive stowaway and was justly rewarded. Nearing the end of the journey, Cornelia caught the measles, but with Emily's aid was able to sneak off the ship and escape quarantine. While in Paris, Cornelia recouperated in a room originally occupied by Cardinal Richlieu. There Cornelia was bitten by his bedbugs adding to the general confusion. Just when they were about to enjoy their vacations, Monsieur de la Croix, Cornelia's French acting teacher, rudely told her that she had no talent. Cornelia's parents came to her rescue and discovered that she did have the ability to act monologues. Both girls returned home never to forget their eventful summer.

"Will there be anything else, ma'am?"

"Madame Elise and her friends."

"Monsieur de la Croix, lend us your ear."

"Cornelia, I hear Cardinal Richelieu's ghost!"

"Doin' the ole Wahoo!"

The cast of "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" at ease after a terrific matinee performance.

Varsity Club

AIMS:

Because of their athletic ability and hard work in extra-curricular sports, the members of the Varsity Club become respectable and outstanding citizens of their community. These boys not only prove themselves as athletes, but also as guiding individuals for those people who work with them. The Varsity Club gives a boy prestige, pride, and the respect of everyone around him. Varsity Club members are capable of taking commands, giving commands, and understanding the fair code of play. Becoming someone, instead of something in life, is the purpose achieved by the members of the Varsity Club and its adviser, Mr. Ceremuga.

Monogram Club

AIM:

Membership of the Monogram Club is composed of all athletes who have received one or more varsity letters for football, basketball, or baseball. The purpose of the club is to promote better sportsmanship among the participants of the different sports. This year the members are going to purchase sweaters for players who have earned a letter for the first time. Mr. Muchoney and Mr. Stas, football coaches, are the school sponsors of this club. To raise funds, the club will sponsor a dance as well as have bake sales during school.

FIRST ROW: T. Muchoney, J. Kurtz, B. Freeman, J. Biskup, M. Olenchock, S. Urban. SECOND ROW: R. Gulibon, D. Golding, B. Kutlip, J. King, W. Newill, F. Krynicky, R. Zelenak. THIRD ROW: P. Perry, J. Huchko, P. Kundrick, R. Kalp, R. Zsolczak, H. Snively.

Smoker, T. Sosko, G. Bossart, T. Trice.

Future Farmers of America

AIM:

Under the supervision of Mr. Joseph Simon, the F.F.A. strives to produce boys who will be the future farmers of America. The F.F.A. is a national organization through which the boys are to gain some of the fundamental principles of farming as a science. Every member is expected to live up to the club motto: "Learning to do; doing to learn; learning to live; living to learn." The club serves the school in many useful ways, such as improving the lawns and helping set up the stage for concerts. It is hoped that these boys will maintain our high agricultural standards and go on to set higher ones.

E. Metz, P. Somers, P. Kundrick, W. Fligger, R. Stumpf.

Industrial Arts Club

AIMS:

The Industrial Arts Club attempts to prepare students for work in the field of industry. During the year the boys have different projects which they must complete. This year for the first time, the senior boys' project was to make money to buy jackets. In the past years the members of the club made podiums, which proved to be very useful for the teachers. Under the supervision of Mr. Copeland, the Industrial Arts Club members will surely succeed in industry.

Richard White, President; Richard Anderson, Vice President; Ralph L. Fiesta, Secretary-Treasurer.

Hunting and Fishing Club

AIMS:

Members of the Hunting and Fishing Club, under the leadership of Mr. Ceremuga, strive to obey the laws and regulations of the state in protecting our wildlife. The club's principal rule is "Safety first and always". Feeding game in the wintertime, thus trying to better the wildlife conditions, is one of the obligations of the members. The club is now taking steps to initiate a summer pheasant raising project, which would contribute much to the hunting of the Mount Pleasant area. As seniors leave the club, they are encouraged to join a sportsman association in their vicinity and to continue their interest in nature.

FIRST ROW: T. Nicoletti, T. Zaucha, E. Milliron, J. DeLuca, J. Ballew
SECOND ROW: P. DiNicola, S. Smelko, H. Caruso, D. Harkcom, A. Berg

FIRST ROW: W. Wilson, R. Fiesta, D. DePalma, B. Caruso, E. Kowanda, J. Avampato. SECOND ROW: J. Taylor, D. Tabita, B. Utzler, D. Kattera, T. Bell, C. Vikartosky, J. Szolek, J. Ryan

Latin Club

AIMS:

The Latin Club, under the leadership of Mrs. Casteel, is one of the largest clubs in the school. To promote interest in ancient culture and to prove that Latin is not a dead language are its main objectives. Only those students who are currently taking Latin or who have completed all courses offered by the school are eligible for membership. At the regular monthly meeting entertainment is given to further enlighten students on the culture and customs of the Latin people. At the close of every school year the students of this club enjoy a trip to Buhl Planetarium and a lavish Roman style banquet.

Officers: R. Shirley, B. Ahlborn, J. Kelley, A. Urban.

FIRST ROW: K. Fenton, K. Hails, B. Lewellen, D. Weinschenker, C. Newill, M. Good, R. Mizikar, S. Lavish, J. Burd, G. Schachte, W. Dell, J. McLaughlin, E. Crosby, M. Firment, G. Kutch, S. Jorgeson.
